Madeleine...Louis is shy....Do it Louis! Because I cannot do it. I haven't the strength. You saw to that when you made me. You have found your new companion, Louis! You will make me mine! Your evil is that you cannot be evil! And I will suffer for it no longer! Yet you could do it to me! Snatching me from my mother's arms like two monsters in a fairy-tale! Couldn't you have waited? Six more years and I would have had that shape! And now you weep! I haven't tears enough for what you've done to me. You give her to me! Do this before you leave me! (She starts to cry and hugs him). Oh god, I love you still. That's the torment of it. But you know I must leave you Louis...and who will care for me my love, my dark angel, when you are gone?
