

COLE: I want to tell you my secret now.I see people. I see dead people.....Some of them scare me. They are walking around, like regular people...They can't see each other. Some of them don't know they're dead. I see ghosts. They tell me stories....Things that happen to them. Things that happen to people they know. I see them all the time. They are everywhere.